

The past has given way to a bright future—Annet’s house in the slum shown above is now a distant memory

The safe, clean and comfortable home below says “you are welcome here - come be at rest and peace...”

Front door to 2-room apartment (everyone hangs a curtain when the door is open)

The beds! Bunks on the left and Annet's bed on the right—it's been a long time without a normal and clean bed!

Initiating the new sofa—bouncing!

Blessing the family's new home

Annet recommits her life to Jesus—thanking Him for all He's done for her!
